

PhD Anna Pruska is an economist by education. In 2003, she graduated from the Warsaw School of Economics, majoring in Finance and Banking, obtaining a Master's degree in Economics. In the years 2001-2003 she studied macroeconomics at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz, Germany, from where in 2003 she went to Geneva for postgraduate studies, where she obtained a certificate of completion of studies in Development Economics.

In 2019, she defended her PhD in humanities in the field of International Relations at the Jagiellonian University.

In 2004, she started working at Comarch. As the President of Comarch Software AG, in 2004-2008, she was responsible for business development and creating company structures from scratch in Western Europe (Germany, France and Belgium). On these markets, she was responsible for the sale of Comarch products in the Telecommunications, ERP and Finance, Banking and Services sectors.

Since 2013, she has served as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Comarch Swiss AG. Since 2013, she has served as a member of the Supervisory Board of Comarch SA.

On the 2nd of October, 2023, she was temporarily delegated by the Supervisory Board to act as President of the Management Board of Comarch SA.

According to the Company's knowledge, Mrs. PhD Anna Pruska does not conduct operations competitive to Comarch S.A.'s activities, does not participate in a competitive company as a partner in a civil law partnership, partnership or Capital company; nor participates in a competitive legal entity as a member of its body, they are not entered in the Register of Insolvent Debtors maintained pursuant to the Act on the National Court Register.