H1 2015 Summary

- Growth in sales on foreign markets (of 18.5%) and on domestic market (of 16.8%)
- Sales of own software increased by 9% and proprietary software by 17,5%. Sales of proprietary hardware amounted to PLN 13.4 million in H1 2015, the year earlier Comarch Group had not provided such type of sales
- An increase of operating costs had been slower than the growth in revenues, and as a consequence there was an improvement of profit margin on core activity and an increase in EBITDA
- The high increase in the value of new contracts in the Trade and Services sector, the significant slowdown in the Public sector
- Employment level higher by 4.2% than that as of the end of 2014
- Expansion to new markets (Italy, Malaysia, Sweden)

Plans for 2015

- Backlog's value as of H2 2015 is lower compared to the previous year
- Continuous development of foreign activity, especially in South America
- The commercialization of e-Health solutions
- Possible new investments in the area of operator services related to the loyalty systems
- Business development of Comarch's branches outside Krakow
