I. GENERAL INFORMATION

Considering that:

- from 3rd of July, 2016 in the European Union member states, there is binding the Regulation of European Parliament and of the Council (EU) No. 596/2014 of 16th of April, 2014 on market abuse and repealing Directive 2003/6/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and Commission Directives 2003/124/EC, 2003/125/EC and 2004/72/EC - (hereinafter: “MAR Regulation”); and

- on the initiative of Polish Association of Listed Companies in consultation with the Association of Individual Investors, the National Chamber of Statutory Auditors, the Association of Brokers and Advisers, the Chamber of Fund and Asset Management and the Chamber of Brokerage Houses, General Reporting Standards (GRS-1 Financial Data Reporting and GRS-2 Reporting of current inside information) have been developed,

Comarch S.A. (hereinafter: “Company” or “Issuer”) developed this Individual Reporting Standard (hereinafter: “IRS”). While developing this IRS, the Company took into account the recommendations included in GRS-1 and GRS-2 with simultaneous consideration of the Issuer's and its capital group's specificity, i.e. scale of operations, capitalization, industry, practice, experience in performing information duties and investors' expectations. This Reporting Standard was preceded by an in-depth analysis of historical events supported by expert knowledge of the management.

Comarch S.A. Individual Reporting Standard specifies in particular the type, scope and form of information that may be classified by the Issuer as inside information within the meaning of article 7 paragraph 1 point a) of MAR Regulation and will be disclosed by the Issuer to the public.

The Individual Reporting Standard is a document supporting the Issuer's reporting system and at the same time aims to provide the principles to participants of trading on the stock-exchange market, including in particular individual and institutional investors, that the Company will follow when fulfilling its disclosure obligations.

The Individual Reporting Standard does not constitute an exhaustive catalogue of information that may be classified by the Issuer as inside within the meaning of article 7 paragraph 1 point a) of MAR Regulation, and the Management Board will each time make an assessment of a given situation based on the definition of inside information specified in the MAR Regulation and will disclose to the public information that will meet all elements of the definition of inside information.

The content of individual information that will be disclosed by the Issuer to the public, based on the Individual Reporting Standard, set out in point II below, does not constitute an exhaustive data set and may be supplemented with data not indicated therein, if it, in the opinion of the Issuer, will be necessary for proper assessment of specific inside information.
